

Support Practitioner

- Job Type: Full-time/Part-time
- Working Hours: 36-48 per week (flexible hours available)
- Salary Range: £23,800-£26,000

We are looking for dedicated Support Workers to join our dynamic team with an immediate start. Help vulnerable individuals transition to independence and make a lasting impact on their lives.

At Oasis Care, we support both young people (16–18) and adults (18–65) with complex needs, including Prader-Willi Syndrome, Autism, and Learning Difficulties. Join us in creating a safe, supportive, and nurturing environment for those who need it most.

Why Join Oasis Care?

- Immediate Start: Begin your meaningful journey with us right away.
- Career Growth: Gain an NVQ Level 4 Qualification in Children, Young People, and Families Practitioner while working.
- Supportive Environment: Work within a collaborative team that values your contributions.
- Flexible Hours: Balance your career with your personal commitments.
- Casual Dress Code: Feel comfortable while you make a difference.
- Wellbeing Support: Access the Lifeworks Employee Assistance Programme for health and wellness guidance.

Your Role:

As a Support Practitioner, you will:

- Provide both practical and emotional support to individuals with complex needs.
- Assist with personal care plans, medication management, and health monitoring.
- Promote independence by encouraging clients to engage with their communities.
- Uphold our commitment to safeguarding and promoting welfare.

Who We're Looking For:

- Compassionate, empathetic, and driven to make a difference.
- Experience in challenging behaviours or trauma-informed care is advantageous.
- NVQ Level 3 or higher in Health and Social Care (or willingness to attain it with our support).
- A positive attitude and a genuine passion for empowering others.

Our Benefits:

- Free NVQ Level 4 Qualification to enhance your career.
- Free Online Courses to expand your skills.
- Free Enhanced DBS Check to ensure safety and compliance.
- Flexible and Rewarding Work with a dedicated and supportive team.
